Announcements

Next Sunday’s message: “A Most Incredible Community” - John 16:12-15, Eph. 4:3-6

The Discernment Committee is pleased to announce that all the positions were affirmed with overwhelming support. Thank you for your participation, and thank you to those who will be giving their time and leadership in our congregation.

Thanks to all of you who came out on Monday to the Interfaith Hospitality Network volunteer training session. With the great turnout, there are only a very few spots for overnight sleeping still available. Check the bulletin board in the gym to see if you can help fill one. Also, if anyone has an extra alarm clock, night light, lamp (for bedside) you could loan for September or donate, let Rose know by Tuesday.

Beginning September 5th, Sue Rice will be leading a 5-week Sunday School class in the corner of the gym entitled “That the World May Know,” a DVD series taught by historian Ray VanderLaan. This study, entitled “Promised Land,” will take you to the Middle East to provide a greater understanding of scripture in its historic, geographic and cultural context. It will transform your understanding of God and challenge you to be a true follower of Jesus.

Attention, teachers of children’s S.S. classes – Shirley Kiefer, Children’s S.S. Supt., has planned a teachers’ brunch for Sat., Sept. 25, 9-11am in the new gym. We will be discussing the curriculum. Hope you can make this important meeting.

Mailboxes, anyone? If you do not have a mailbox but would like one, please put a note in the Secretary’s Mailbox or talk to Martha. I’ll be happy to add one for you.

Coming Events

September 1-15 – Interfaith Housing. Check bulletin board in the gym for ways you can help. See Rose, Karen or Ginger to volunteer.

September 5 – Come to church dressed in your work clothes, bring a tool from

It will also be “Back to School” day.

September 11 – (Saturday) is our church picnic. See announcement below.

September 12 – Baptism during the 1st service at church, other baptisms in the Unami Creek following the 2nd service.

September 18 – 4 on 4 volleyball tournament fundraiser for the post high

September 22, 7:30 pm – Book Club to discuss “Hope Rising” by Kim Meeder

September 25, 9-11 am – Children’s S.S. teachers’ brunch in the gym

October 3 – Communion in both services

October 24 – Fellowship meal following the second service

The church picnic is September 11, 2:00 pm. In remembrance of 9-11, we are having a patriotic theme. Young and old will have a chance to participate in a bike parade, pie-eating contest and a softball game. Prizes will be awarded! Everyone can ride the hayride. There will be a campfire in the evening for roasting marshmallows. Bring lawn chairs, softball equipment, and any lawn games you like to play. Start thinking and gathering items for decorating your bike which can be pedal or motorized! Eating will commence at 4 pm. If your last name begins with A-L, bring a dessert. M-Z bring a salad.

Adopting in Kenya. Infertility, tests, disappointment: John and Glenda Leonard went through it all. Then they decided to ditch all that and head to Kenya, Africa, where they found the family they had been longing for. Hear their story this Saturday, August 28, on “Shaping Families” radio program, WBYN, 1160 AM at 10 am or WBYN, 107.5 FM at 8:30 pm.

The Young Family, a Christian rock/contemporary group, will be presenting an outdoor concert at Hereford Mennonite Church in Bally at 7:00 pm tonight. See the flyer on bulletin board for details.

Christopher Dock Mennonite High School is pleased to welcome a 9th grade student from Nations Worship Center (the Phila. Mennonite Indonesian Church). This male student would like to stay in a local host home from Monday after school through Friday morning each week. No weekends of hosting are required. The host family would provide breakfasts and dinners, and would be compensated a monthly stipend. Contact Lois Boaman, Dock’s Admissions Director, at 215-362-2675 ext. 106 with your interest or questions.
