Tree of Life International invites you to share in an authentic Haitian meal and enjoy a program with special guests from Haiti. The guests will share about what is happening in Labaleine, the village our own youth spent a week in 3 summers ago. The meal will be served at Franconia Mennonite Church on Sunday, Feb. 13, 12:30pm. Tree of Life International supports education and community development in Labaleine and surrounding villages. Tickets are free with a free-will offering to go towards the ministry. See Jina Reinford if you are interested in reserving a seat and learning more about the hope that is filling this village.

There is a place to mark if you are not able or interested in serving at this time.
