“Why then the Law?”

(Galatians 3:15-22)

The purpose of the law

Law is not a granter of life

- Those who rely on the law are under a curse
- Those who are under the law are captive

The law as guardian

- To preserve until the Faithful One came
- To expose our unfaithfulness

The place of the law for a believer

The law gives us a true diagnosis

The law no longer our disciplinarian

The law shows us the direction

Implications

We can be a refuge for all

We can pursue all

We can teach all
